1. One 4 June 1952, eighty-six disabled soldiers from the 62 Army, 18 Army Group, 2 Field Army, arrived at Liuchou (109-16, 24-18), where they stayed overnight before proceeding to Kueilin. They were travelling in military trucks and had come from Tushan (107-32, 25-50).
2. While in Liuchou, some of these disabled soldiers visited the Kwangsi Provincial School for Disabled Revolutionary Soldiers. During this visit they disclosed that they had formerly been assigned to the 186 Division of the 62 Army, which had been ordered to the Korean front in the spring of 1951. They had been wounded there and had been taken to Tushan, Kweichow, for hospitalization. Now they are being transferred to Kwangsi because they are all natives of that province. At Kueilin, they will be taught various skills which will enable them to engage in productive work.
3. These soldiers also said that all three divisions of the 62 Army still remain in Korea.
